

IN-PERSON

- Course is delivered in-person and on campus in a traditional classroom setting
- Students are expected to attend and participate in class on the days and times listed on the timetable
- Some courses may also include some online components
- For students who plan on returning to Antigonish or who can commute within the province

ONLINE-SCHEDULED DELIVERY (SYNCHRONOUS)

- Course is delivered on-line by live lecture with opportunities to engage with peers and the professor in real time
- Students are expected to attend and participate in class on the days and times listed on the timetable
- For students who plan on returning to Antigonish and those unable to return to campus who are looking for classes with a defined schedule

ONLINE-NO SCHEDULED DELIVERY (ASYNCHRONOUS)

- Course is delivered on-line with no scheduled meeting times
- Students are expected to participate in course activities and will progress through the course material following a course outline
- For students who plan on returning to Antigonish and those unable to return to campus, are in another time zone, or are looking for classes with a flexible schedule