

St Francis Xavier University is faithfully mindful of that saying of St. Paul, “Whatsoever things are true,” when it publicly bestows the crowning award on deserving students to whom it thereafter entrusts the mission of being leaders among their fellow citizens.

.....

taking thought for the duties of life, has duly completed the course of studies prescribed by its constitution and successfully passed the examinations.

Wherefore, the University after a vote of its Faculty has decreed to honor this student with the degree of and all the rights, privileges and honors flowing from it.

Let this parchment stamped with the seal of the same University and signed by its President, Dean, and Chancellor be a witness of this fact to all who read this.

Given at Antigonish in Nova Scotia
On the of A.D.

President

Dean

Chancellor