1. The agenda was approved.
2. The minutes of October 10, 2018 were approved.
3. Academic Update
The second StFX Open House was held on October 13th. The contributions of the planning committee and the campus members who participated the event are greatly appreciated as the event was a success, with 462 prospective students in attendance.
4. Capital Projects
The construction of the Flag Plaza behind Mulroney Hall is proceeding well. The brick painting on Nicholson Tower will pause soon for the winter weather. The entrance to the library will get back to normal by December.
5. Board of Governors Meetings
There will be a book launch with special guests TRH Mr. Mulroney and author Dr. Hampson on October 25. Board of Governor members will join them and will be having their meeting on October 26th.
6. Gerald Schwartz School of Business Update
The newly donated scholarships and bursaries for students attending the Gerald Schwartz School of Business will be announced at a ceremony held on October 30th. There will be a marketing campaign led by StFX to promote awareness of the scholarships.
7. Smoking Policy Update
The provincial law has changed regarding the allowable distance from buildings for smoking, (from 7 metres to 20 metres). StFX signage will be updated.

Respectfully submitted,
L. Lawrence
