

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER UNIVERSITY

The Department of Adult Education at St. Francis Xavier University invites applications for a one-year (12-month), limited term appointment for the 2024-2025 academic year, starting on July 1, 2024. The Department offers a highly recognized Master of Adult Education program (M. Ad. Ed.) and is considered a leader in adult education in Canada. Our course-based program attracts mid-career professionals working in an educational capacity with adults in not-for-profit, post-secondary education, health and health care, community development and government settings.

The successful candidate will have a completed or nearly completed doctorate in Adult Education or a related field, experience working with adult learners in an educational setting, and teaching experience with both synchronous and asynchronous online learning environments. An emerging or established research agenda is preferred and expertise and experience in health and adult learning will be considered an asset.

The Department is seeking candidates who are committed to contributing to StFX's priorities of equity, diversity, and inclusion. This position is situated in a high-performing department with a strong, collaborative faculty environment.

The appointment will be made, commensurate with experience, at the Lecturer or Assistant Professor (1) level (<https://www.stfx.ca/people-culture/current-employees/faculty-and-academic-staff-stfx-aut>) This program is based in Antigonish, Nova Scotia and it is expected the successful candidate will reside in the region for the duration of the appointment.

Applicants should send a curriculum vitae, letter of application, a statement of teaching philosophy, and names of three referees by email to:

Dr. Lace Marie Brogden, Dean
Attention: Jennifer Connors
Faculty of Education
St. Francis Xavier University
PO Box 5000, Antigonish, NS, B2G 2W5 Email: jconnors@stfx.ca

Review of applications will begin on January 31, 2024 and continue until the position has been filled.

St. Francis Xavier University is located in Mi'kma'ki, the ancestral and unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq People. Our institution is committed to upholding the values of equity, diversity, inclusion and accessibility. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been historically disadvantaged and marginalized, including Indigenous persons (especially Mi'kmaq), minoritized persons (especially African Nova Scotians), persons with disabilities, those who identify as women and/or 2SLGBTQIA+ and any others who would contribute to the diversity of our community. Qualified candidates will be provided the opportunity to self-identify through a process with Human Resources. Please note that all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, applications from Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. We are also committed to the elimination of barriers to participation for persons with disabilities.

Should you require an accommodation during the recruitment process, please contact Human Resources at hr@stfx.ca or 902-867-5038.
