

Daniel and Frances Anzelc Cordeau Music Scholarship Application

The Cordeau and Anzelc families have created a generous award to support a student in the StFX Music Program.

This award will be granted to an incoming first year student majoring in a Music degree plan. It is in the amount of $7000 per year, renewable for your four years of study at StFX. This award will be applied to the StFX student account.

Preference will be given first to those with Slovenian ethnicity, and second to music ability. If no student with Slovenian background has applied then it will be open to all Canadian students and the recipient will be chosen based on music ability. Talent will be assessed by audition at the Music Department.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Instrument or voice: _____

Please include an essay (up to 1000 words) describing your musical experiences and aspirations, and explaining your Slovenian background, if you have one. Applications without essays will not be considered.

In addition, an audition is required. If you can audition in person, please tell us the best dates for a campus visit. If you cannot audition in person, please create a video audition, and supply us with a link to a downloadable file. Applications without auditions will not be considered.

Audition materials should conform to the guidelines for each instrument, which are located at <http://sites.stfx.ca/music/admissions>. In addition, applicants are encouraged to submit additional materials, such as a prepared solo piece, a prepared ensemble effort, or evidence of original work.

The deadline for applications is 1 April 2021. The winner will be selected no later than 1 May 2021. The next recipient will be determined in 2024.

The winner of this scholarship is required to write a letter of thanks to the Cordeau and Anzelc families before funds will be authorized.
