

StFX Music Camp Code of Conduct

The Xaverian community (Staff, Faculty, and students at StFX) aspires to create an environment where every member contributes to and receives a sense that they are valued and belong by showing thoughtfulness, consideration, and care toward each other in all interactions, recognizing the value in each person and treating others with fairness and dignity. As a visitor to the StFX campus, you are expected to adhere to the Xaverian standards of conduct, to exercise good judgement and conduct yourself with honesty, integrity, and respect for others at all times.

Code of Conduct Agreement:

By signing this document, I agree to conduct myself in accordance with all rules and requirements of the StFX music camp, and agree as follows:

1. I will be a responsible and engaged member of the music camp community
2. I promise to treat all participants and faculty at the camp with respect
3. I will not engage in and will not be tolerant of violent acts, including assaults on persons, property, harassment, discrimination, aggression, intimidation, or any other conduct prohibited by law or camp policy. If I witness any such acts perpetrated by others, I will report them to a camp Faculty member or StFX security immediately.
4. I will not initiate or engage in nonconsensual sexual contact or sexual harassment
5. I will not author, forward, or post vulgar or offensive notes, texts, photographs, or other content that reflects negatively on myself, my fellow camp participants and faculty, or StFX University
6. I will not consume alcoholic beverages or illicit drugs or take prescription drugs unless they have been prescribed for me by a medical professional.

I understand that failure to conduct myself responsibly, as stated and implied by the conditions in this code of conduct, may result in sanctions, up to and including dismissal from the StFX Music Camp.
