

Research Security Funding - Performance Framework 2026-27

The following table outlines the current StFX Research Security fund performance objectives and indicators that will be tracked in accordance with federal Research Support Fund requirements.

Research Security Project	Institutional Performance Objective	Indicator	Outcome	Outcomes Reported at Year End
Investment in new grant management with enhanced security features and ability to track and report on security related projects. Total amount of Research Security funds allocated for the forthcoming year (notional amount): $7,484.00 Expected Institutional contribution: $73,922	To ensure that StFX has the capacity to identify, track, and monitor projects with research security risks.	Launch of new grant management software.	Enhanced capacity for research risk security identification, tracking, and monitoring. The Research Services Group will be able to adequately report on projects with research security risks.	New grant management software launched. Number of research applications assessed for research security risks within the past year.