

Research Security Funding - Performance Framework 2024-25

The following table outlines the current StFX Research Security fund performance objectives and indicators that will be tracked in accordance with federal Research Support Fund requirements.

Research Security Project	Institutional Performance Objective	Indicator	Outcome	Outcomes Reported at Year End
Professional Development for Research Security. Total amount of Research Security funds allocated for the forthcoming year (notional amount): $2908.00 Expected Institutional contribution: $2092.00	To ensure that StFX has the internal knowledge capacity to appropriately apply the requirements of the STRAC framework and adequately assess research security risks associated with proposed research projects.	Number and types of professional development completed by Research Services Group staff.	Enhanced research risk security knowledge and capability in our research services group. The Research Services Group will be able to adequately assess research security risks associated with research proposals in a timely manner.	Number and types of professional development completed by Research Services Group staff. Number of research applications assessed for research security risks within the past year.