

Department of Economics

Application for Teaching Assistant Positions

2026-27 Academic Year

The Department of Economics seeks qualified students to serve as Teaching Assistants for our core economic theory courses (ECON 101, 102, 201, 202) this academic year. Duties can include some or all of the following:

- Staffing the Economics Help Centre to help answer student questions regarding course material and/or assignments;
- Assisting with grading assignments;
- Assisting with exam invigilation;
- And related academic duties.

Hours are expected to be about 8-10 per week. Salary will be current minimum wage + $1. Appointment would begin on Sep 21 and end on Dec 7.

Priority will be given to upper-year Economics students, with academic performance being given high consideration. Students majoring in related academic disciplines may apply if they performed well in these core economics courses.

If you are interested, please provide a CV and indicate which course(s) and semester (Fall/Winter/both) would be of interest to you. Provide to material to the Chair of the Economics Department, Greg Tkacz (gtkacz@stfx.ca) by Thursday September 10 at 6PM
